Electronic Reporting System

In late 2010, the IPHC instituted a new reporting system for Churches and Ministers/Clergy. As of June 30, 2012, a good number of churches and clergy have begun using the new computer, web-based reporting system for their monthly reporting and giving commitments to the IPHC. No software is required to be loaded and the new system has won praise from the majority of participants.
To begin reporting online, please send an email to Conference Secretary-Treasurer Oris Hubbard at ohubbard.nciphc@gmail.com. He will contact you and activate you or your church in the system.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT
FOR THE YEAR 2011
By: Bishop Jim Whitfield

Mr. Chairman, conference ministers and church delegates, I greet you today in the powerful name of our living, loving Lord.

I report to you that my daily preparation for servant leadership in the North Carolina conference and the Kingdom of God consist of three spiritual disciplines:

(1) Daily, I surrender my will and day to the will of God. His will is my peace for each day.

(2) I practice a prayerful mind-set through-out each day.

(3) I commit my soul to listening to the Holy Spirit give guidance in the multiple challenges and decisions that each day brings.

I am enjoying preaching the Gospel and representing Jesus Christ and the North Carolina Conference everywhere I go.

Thank you for the privilege of serving this conference in this capacity of leadership and for your support. I praise God for the support of my wife, my children and their families and especially my grand children.

What is the state of the North Carolina Conference? Numerically, we closed the year with 242 churches, with 31,487 members and 23,015 in average attendance.

- Seventy-eight (78) churches increased in membership with an average of 13.2 members per church. We need this exact number of increase by all of our churches to reach our 2020 vision.
- Seventy-two (72) churches had a decrease in membership, an average of 15.7 per church.
- Ninety-two (92) churches showed no loss or gain.
- Forty-two percent (42%) of the churches reported a gain in average attendance.
- Sixty seven percent (67.8%) of our churches either lost members or remained the same. The national average in the USA is above 85% of the churches that are plateau or declining.

We have much kingdom work to do.

I. What are we going to do about it?

(A) We are connecting pastors and churches, which are experiencing turn-around and growth, with those pastors and churches who want to turn their church from a plateau or dying direction.

(B) We are challenging our ministers and people not to let one of God's churches die on their watch.

(C) We are pouring vision and mission into the minds and hearts of our people. We are praying for Kingdom power for a Kingdom harvest.

(D) This is my personal part of the total vision of the Conference.

The vision for the conference is to grow from 242 churches to 325 and from 31,257 members to 58,000 members by 2020 for this tribe of the Kingdom of God.

II. What else are we doing to keep this conference vibrant, fruitful and productive in the Kingdom?

(A) We realize it is easier to have a baby than to have a resurrection. Brothers Danny Nelson, Luis Avila and Kevin Robinson are committed to birthing new churches through the region.

(B) We have connected with Dynamic Church Planting International (DCPI) for training our pastors and church leaders in the enterprise of birthing new churches and growing them for God. They will be churches of diversity with life, vision and mission propelling them into the harvest fields all around us.

(C) We are believing that churches that are without a denominational covering will be coming to join in the harvest season with us.

(D) We are strategizing at the conference office (Conference Ministry Center) to be prepared with personnel and facilities to accommodate an increase of people and churches to efficiently administrate the oversight of God's harvest He will entrust to this conference.

III. What happened this past year?

Reports through June 30, 2012 show the following spiritual progress:

Saved	Sanctified	Holy Spirit	Water Baptism	New Members
4,895	597	256	446	925

Total Church Membership of Reporting Churches: 31,487

Average Worship Attendance: 23,015

Average Systematic Bible Study Attendance: 12,412

I work with an outstanding Conference Council. We get perspectives from pastors, department directors, and lay-persons--male and female.

Our staff is in transition. Four positions have new personnel in place. We deeply appreciate Mrs.Dolores Reynolds for 27 years of service to the NC Conference, Mrs. Kay Glover's 26 years in the accounting department, Sara Salter six years in Discipleship Ministries and Melissa Mendieta six years in Hispanic office.

Our new employees are doing excellent work as they conquer the learning curve of their new assignment. They are:

Ginger Wheeler – Accounts Payable and Loan Fund

Karen Carter – Accounts Receivable
Nicole Oliver – Discipleship Ministries
To be announced – Hispanic Ministries Administrative Assistant

Thank you Sheila Oglesby, Nicole Turansky, Karen Lucas and Regenia Whitfield for stretching your time and energy for us during this time of transition.

Tommy Vaughan, Mark Lucas, Rose Hubbard and Felicia Reynolds keep the campus looking good for our many guests.

To God be the glory for every spiritual experience and every dollar invested in the on-going, ever-unfolding ministries of the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church!

Respectfully submitted

Jim Whitfield; Bishop

The Retired Ministers Fund Constitution of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc.

Preface

The North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church through the years has endeavored to provide a benefit package for its retired ministers. First, there was the "Provident Fund" which required the participants to contribute five dollars ($5.00) per year. Only a few ministers participated in the program.

In 1939, at the Annual Conference in Williamston, North Carolina, the conference changed the name of the Fund to the "Superannuate Fund." A percentage from the conference budget was allocated for retired ministers.

In the beginning, ministers were allowed to participate on a voluntary basis; but it soon became evident that the program must become mandatory in order for all ministers to receive benefits at retirement.

The name, Retired Ministers Fund, was adopted at the 2006 Quadrennial Conference held in Falcon, North Carolina.

From those small beginnings the Retired Ministers Fund has grown. It has continued to have a healthy build up of cash reserves and has provided a steady increase of benefits to its members.

The Retired Ministers Fund provides an excellent benefit for the minister. Most ministers will draw more in benefits in the first and second years of retirement than they paid into the program during all their active participating years.

It is very important for the minister to make full contribution each year or lose the benefit for that year. Each minister should adequately prepare for the retirement years. The retirement program of this conference is a vital part of this preparation.

I. RETIRED MINISTERS FUND

The following regulations determine the distribution of funds from the Retired Ministers Fund to qualifying ministers:

A. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be a part of the financial program of the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church, Inc.
   1. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be for the benefit of:
      a. Ministers and their spouses
      b. Spouses of deceased ministers

B. The Retired Ministers Fund shall be administered by the North Carolina Conference Executive Council, herein referred to as the "Administrators".

C. The North Carolina Conference financial records shall be the basis of verifying individual participation.

D. In the event a minister does not pay the minimum requirement within 30 days of the ending of the conference year, said minister shall permanently lose that service year.

II. PERPETUATION

This fund shall be supported in the following ways:

A. The conference treasury by the payment of a percentage of clergy and church tithes (this percentage is noted in the appendix).

B. Ministers shall pay a percentage of net income monthly or a minimum per annum, whichever is greater (this percentage and minimum is noted in the appendix).

C. Full-time ministerial students in preparation for the ministry are required to pay a minimum per annum as noted in the appendix.

D. Interest and/or dividends on investments from these funds.

E. Gifts, endowments, legacies, etc.

III. PARTICIPATION

A. Retirement: A minister who has reached full retirement age, or has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration shall be eligible upon request for retirement benefits. Said minister may elect to retire at age sixty-two (62) with 80% of accrued benefits; at age sixty-three (63) with 87% of accrued benefits; or at age sixty-four (64) with 94% of accrued benefits. The rate of benefits shall be determined by:

1. Number of service years as a member of the North Carolina Conference.
2. Support of the conference financial program.
    a. In the event a minister retires because of disability before reaching full retirement age AND has been approved for disability by the Social Security Administration, said minister will receive full benefits for the duration of disability. The rate of retirement benefits shall be based on service years in the conference and support of its financial program.
    b. Upon retirement, full-time ministers shall receive the current designated amount for full-time ministers as noted in the appendix of this Constitution. In the event a full-time minister reverts to part-time status, full-time service years would be retained. Full-time service years will be interpreted by the administrators and based upon the minister's conference assignment record.
    c. "Full-time" is defined as those years during which a minister is assigned as pastor, full-time pastoral staff or is serving in a full-time conference-elected or assigned position.
    d. Upon retirement, part-time ministers (those not on conference assignment), will receive the current designated amount for part-time ministers (as noted in the appendix).

e. Ministerial students, while in school, will be considered full-time only if under conference assignment.

f. The administrators are to annually consider the feasibility of an increase of benefits.

B. At least twenty percent (20%) of the previous year's receipts shall be retained in the Retired Ministers Fund.

C. A Christmas gift shall be given to each person currently receiving benefits so long as adequate funding is available.

D. Spousal Benefits will be one-half (1/2) the monthly benefit of the deceased minister at the time of death.

1. Spouse of deceased retired ministers shall receive spousal benefit on a monthly basis beginning the month following the minister's death.
2. In the event a minister dies prior to retirement, the surviving spouse may request in writing, refund (without interest) of contributions made to retirement fund or elect to begin spousal benefit at age sixty (60) or upon approval for disability by the Social Security Administration. Such written request must be made within ninety (90) days of death. Refund payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of Conference Executive Council's approval. An exception to this is that the Conference Executive Council may deduct any tithes or other funds owed to the North Carolina Conference and/or Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.
3. In the event a retired minister remarries and then dies, the spouse shall be eligible for retirement benefits at the age of sixty (60) or disability as aforementioned.
4. Where both husband and wife are ministers, and the husband or wife is deceased, the living spouse will receive spousal benefits. When the living spouse becomes eligible for retirement, said spouse will receive the greater of the two benefits.
5. Should the spouse of a deceased minister remarry, benefits will cease. If the new spouse should die, said spouse shall be eligible for the restoration of spousal benefits. The recipient must request the restored benefits in writing. Remarriage shall annul this provision.
6. Should the remarriage of a spouse of a deceased minister end in divorce, the decision regarding restoration of spousal benefits shall be based on guidelines for divorce and remarriage as stated in the IPHC manual.

E. A death benefit of $500.00 shall be paid to the estate of a deceased minister or to the surviving spouse.

F. Requirements: Clergy receiving benefits from this Fund shall have paid one-hundred percent (100%) of their tithes, both secular and ministerial, and shall have met the minimum requirement for retirement benefits. This requirement must be met annually. The sentence dealing with tithes is not to conflict with General Conference rulings concerning General Conference Officials and those engaged in Home Missions Conferences.

G. No person shall have recourse to civil law for the collection of any benefits herein set forth.

IV. ADMINISTRATION

A. Any qualified member desiring retirement shall submit completed application (available from the Conference Ministry Center) to the Conference Bishop at least thirty (30) days prior to planned retirement date.

B. Any minister withdrawing membership or being dismissed from the North Carolina Conference shall, upon written request, be refunded the amount said minister has contributed into the fund without interest. Such request must be made within sixty (60) days of severance. Refund payment shall be made within thirty (30) days of administrator's approval. An exception to this is that the Conference Executive Council may deduct any tithes or other funds owed to the North Carolina Conference or Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund.

C. Clergy receiving retirement benefits may be used as an interim pastor without affecting retirement benefit.

D. Retired ministers shall cease to accrue service years at the time of retirement and are no longer required to contribute to the retirement fund, but may choose to do so to bless the fund's continuance.

V. SECONDED CLERGY

A ministerial member of the North Carolina Conference who is seconded to another conference to pastor a church in the International Pentecostal Holiness Church may continue to participate in the North Carolina Conference retirement program by complying with the following:

Seconded minister shall make the Conference Bishop of the Conference to which said minister is seconded, aware of this requirement.
3. "Part-time" is defined as service years during which a minister is not pastoring nor serving in a full-time conference-elected or assigned position.

B. "Full-time" is defined as those years during which a minister is assigned as pastor, full-time pastoral staff or is serving in a full-time conference-elected or assigned position. To earn "full-time" retirement benefits for any given year, the seconded minister must:

1. Contribute a percentage of net income monthly or a minimum per annum, whichever is greater (this percentage and minimum is noted in the appendix).
2. Contribute a percentage of regular tithe equal to the current budget allocation percentage as noted in the appendix.
3. To satisfy the requirement of the retirement program, the church which the seconded minister pastors must agree to contribute a percentage of the amount of church's tithes retained by the church's conference to the North Carolina Conference Retired Ministers Fund. This amount shall be equal to the current budget allocation percentage (see appendix for example). The seconded minister is expected to make the church he pastors aware of this requirement as well as the Conference office and Conference Bishop to which he reports.

C. When a licensed or ordained minister chooses to transfer to another IPHC conference, said minister may choose to freeze retirement account at the current level at time of transfer, or may withdraw actual contributions (See IV. B). The decision to freeze retirement account must be presented in writing to the office of the Conference Bishop within 60 days after the application to transfer.

VI. INVESTMENTS

Administrators are hereby authorized to deposit assets of the Retired Ministers Fund into the Ministerial and Church Extension Loan Fund and/or other financial institutions. Administrators will insure that these funds are not deposited into a financial institution or program that supports businesses which compromise the moral standards of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

VII. AMENDMENTS

A. This Constitution shall not be amended or changed in any conference session except in the following manner:

1. Any proposed change or amendment must be submitted by the Conference Executive Council or a number of persons equal to said Council.
2. Such a resolution must be preceded by a reading of the Constitution or that portion of the Constitution involved.
3. Further, such reading and such proposed change or amendment must be read in a previous session before a vote is taken on a resolution.
4. Amendments shall require a two-thirds majority vote for adoption.

B. Copies of this Constitution shall be printed and made available to all ministers presently in the North Carolina Conference and to each minister upon membership in the conference. The requirements of this Constitution are absolutely mandatory. All clergy must comply in order to be eligible for retirement benefits. The proposed amendments of this Constitution shall not be retroactive.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE
INTERNATIONAL PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

APPRECIATION REPORT 2011

No one can measure the value of a human life, let alone determine or validate the worth of its accomplishments; no one that is but God (cf. Matthew 24:45-46; Romans 14:4). Every servant of God desires to hear those words from the Lord himself, "Well done, good and faithful servant" (cf. Matthew 25:21, 23). No accolade on earth, no recognition, no affirmation or praise is sufficient, nor could it ever substitute for the honor of hearing the acknowledgement of our Great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. Nevertheless, the New Testament requires the church to give honor to its leaders when they faithfully serve God, and to cooperate with them in loyal service and humble submission to his will (cf. 1 Timothy 5:7; Hebrews 13:17).

For this reason, today we pay tribute to the lives and ministries of a number of ministers, who have invested their lives in the kingdom of God, and who after their faithful labors, are now retiring from many, but not all, of their responsibilities in the North Carolina Conference. Although, we must remember there is no retirement program in the kingdom of heaven, and we are laborers together with Christ until we see him face to face. It is with a great sense of appropriate solemnity, tempered with joyful thanksgiving that we recognize the following:

REV. SHERWOOD PAGE

Brother Sherwood Page began his ministry in 1986 when he was asked if he would preach in a rest home service one Thursday night a month. The person asking him told him that if he said "no", he would be refusing God! Although he had taught teenagers and adults in Sunday School, served on the Church Board, and as Church Education Director, Brother Sherwood was very shy and did not think he could do this. However, he could not say "no" to God! So he agreed! Preaching in the rest home progressed to cottage prayer meetings, youth services, and services in his home church.

After avoiding the full implications of the call for three years, he finally yielded fully to the call of God and in February of 1989 received a Mission Workers License. By June 1989, he was licensed as a minister in the North Carolina Conference, and in October 1989, he became the pastor of Vicks Chapel P. H. Church; just that quickly!

Brother Page pastored Grifton P. H. Church from July of 1990 until July of 1996, receiving ordination in June 1991. He was able to complete a building project that had already begun, adding classrooms, bathrooms and a rest area in the church.

From July 1996 through October of 2007 Brother Sherwood pastored Black Creek P. H. Church, during which time the congregation grew from an attendance of 7 to 85. Many souls were saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost during those years. He and the church were able to make improvements to the campus, including the installation of a new sign, new steeple, paving the parking lot, a new fellowship hall, and by completely remodeling inside and outside of the church. Throughout his ministry God blessed the church with the finances to complete their projects without having to go into debt!

Health issues made it necessary in October of 2007 for Brother Sherwood to step down from the pastorate until about May 2008. In May 2008 he became the pastor of Hopewell P. H. Church. But again in June 2010, due to his health he had to leave the pastorate.

Although he is not pastoring, Rev. Sherwood Page will tell you he still has a pastor's heart. He says that we may not like the way things turn out sometimes, but we do know that God is still God, and is still in charge. Thank you Brother Sherwood and Sister Edna.

REV. ROLAND HARRELL

As a solid and dedicated ministry team, Rev. Roland Harrell and his wife Phyllis have been engaged in ministry for 52 years in 4 Conferences and 10 churches.

Saved at the age of 16 on June 2, 1954, under the ministry of Pastor Harvey Morris at the Tarboro First P. H. Church, Brother Roland went on after high school to study at Holmes Theological Seminary, in Greenville, S.C. In June 1958 he was licensed with the South Carolina Conference at Lake City, S.C. The following summer, while still at college, he was married to Phyllis Sellers on June 14, 1959 at Hartsville S.C. by Superintendent Padgett Robinson. After graduating from Holmes Bible College in 1960, Brother Harrell was ordained in the South Carolina Conference by Bishop Joseph A. Synan.

When they left Greenville, Brother Roland and Sister Phyllis entered full-time evangelistic ministry as General Evangelists with the South Carolina Conference, pausing briefly to serve as supply pastor to the P. H. Church at Lucan, Ontario, Canada. While in the Ontario Brother Harrell was elected to serve on the Ontario Conference Board. From the very earliest days of ministry Brother Roland and Sister Phyllis have been a ministry team, setting the standard before it became a church trend.

Their pastoral ministry took them to the P. H. Church in Hamlet, N.C., Little Lamb P.H. Church in Conway S.C., First P. H. Church in Miami, Florida, the First P. H. Church in Waycross, Georgia, Tabernacle P. H. Church in Goldsboro, N. C., the First P. H. Church in Wilson, N. C., the First P. H. Church in Clinton, N.C., the Capital P. H. Church in Garner N.C. and finally the First P. H. Church Kinston N.C.

In 1990 Brother Roland was elected to serve on the North Carolina Conference Board and then elected to serve as the Secretary-Treasurer of the North Carolina Conference in 1996, where he managed the Conference Loan Fund, and took up responsibility for Campus improvement. During that period of time under his supervision the Ward Dorm and the Boys Dorm were remodeled. The CE House became a dorm and upgrades were made in the Conference Office Building, whereby the upstairs overnight rooms became offices. By far the most significant project on the Conference campus, constructed under Brother Roland's meticulous oversight was the new J.A. Culbreth Memorial Auditorium. Following this, the Sudie Butler Guest House was constructed with equal attention to detail.

After leaving his post as Conference Secretary-Treasurer, Brother Harrell served nearly two years as the Executive Assistant to Conference Superintendent, now Bishop Chris Thompson. After resigning from his post as Assistant to the Conference Superintendent in 2007, Brother and Sister Harrell took over pastoral responsibilities of the Kinston First P. H. Church, until July 2011.

REV. GEORGE TERRY

From early childhood George Terry attended the Millennium P.H. Church where his grandfather and grandmother were charter members, but as a teen drifted away from church. Brother George met Judith Bland and they were married in 1964 and later decided, for the sake of their family, they needed to start attending church on a regular basis. Sometime in the fall of 1971, George, under conviction by the Holy Spirit, decided to go to church one Sunday evening and to renew his commitment to Christ, but developed a severe migraine and was unable to go. In the early hours of the next morning, just after midnight, beside his bed, he not only accepted Christ as Lord and Savior but also the call to preach.

His began active ministry right away. Within two weeks he preached his first sermon on a Wednesday night at the Millennium P. H. Church. He began teaching an extension Sunday School class at a local rest home, and holding "cottage prayer meetings" for the elderly and shut-in. Brother George received Mission Workers License in May of 1972, Local Minister License the next year in June 1973, and was ordained on June 21, 1975.

An ardent and persistent student of the Word, George read the Bible through for the first time in less than six months while teaching school and operating a full-time construction business. He attended most of the Theological Education by Extension classes offered by the Conference at that time. His commitment to the call of God lead him to pastor Weldon P. H. Church for 4½ years, to become the first pastor of Oak Ridge Church (now Brocks Chapel) in the Goldsboro District and from there to pastor the Sharon P. H. Church for 12 years. Brother Terry's pastoral assignments concluded with a period of time at Midway P. H. Church.

Since 2006, Brother Terry has served many of the Conference churches by filling their pulpits from Sunday to Sunday. Brother Terry and his wife Judy have particularly enjoyed meeting new friends and serving the conference in this way.

During his ministry Brother Terry has preached in almost fifty of our churches and several other denominations. He has also been active in Falcon Youth Camp, serving as counselor, Dean of Boys, and operating the Canteen for two years. More recently, Brother George has been teaching Construction and Business Education in the public school system, working in curriculum development with NCDPI, and in the Central Office of Sampson County Schools. In 1994, he was named in the Who's Who in Education.

Brother Terry makes this observation about his ministry life, that it is a "Ministry of Trust." He cites Proverbs 3:5-6, as the scriptural foundation of his service for God and this Conference "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths."

REV. JERRY THOMAS GREEN

Rev. Jerry Green graduated from New Hanover County Public School System in May 1964 and subsequently took some general education courses at Cape Fear Community College between 1965 and 1966. Jerry received his Mission Workers License in 1975, and joined the North Carolina Conference in June 1976 when he received his Minister's Licensed. In 1978 Brother Jerry was ordained.

From October 1976 - October 1981 Brother Jerry pastored the Sneads Ferry Pentecostal Holiness Church, and from October 1981 - August 1984 the Elizabethtown Pentecostal Holiness Church.

As an ordained minister in the Pentecostal Freewill Baptist Church, he planted the West Bank PFWB Church in Leland, N. C. In June 1997, after transferring back into the North Carolina Conference, Brother Green encouraged the merger of the West Bank Church in Leland with Sonlight P. H. Church.

In July 1998 Jerry and Teresa Green took over the pastoral duties of the Living Springs P. H. Church in Elizabethtown, N. C. While serving as pastor in Bladen County, Brother Jerry energetically sought to expand the influence of the church into the community. From December 1998 – June 2004 he served as President of the Bladen County Ministerial Association, from January 2000 – December 2008 as Director of Pastoral Care in the Bladen County Hospital, from July 2004 – December 2006 as Advantage Hospice Chaplain, from October 2010 – 2011 as a North Carolina State Highway Patrol Chaplain, and from September 2008 – April 2011 he served as Character Mentor in East Bladen High School.

Brother Jerry was Secretary of the Lumberton District Evangelism Unit from August 1999 – January 2005, ordained as an IPHC Chaplain in September 2000, planted Family Christian Center Church in Elizabethtown (Hispanic) in January 2002, and served as ATAM Coordinator for the Lumberton District from January 2005 – December 2006.

In addition to all of this, Brother Jerry Green completed the Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program at New Hanover Regional Medical Center in Wilmington, N.C. in June 2000 and graduated from Duke University Divinity School, from the pastoral care program in February 2008.

Although in March 2009 Brother Jerry retired, he is currently serving as Associate Pastor in the Wilmington First Pentecostal Holiness Church.

REV. BOBBY WILLIAMS

Rev. Bobby Williams accepted Christ as Savior at the age 16, and was called to preach during a Piney Grove Camp Meeting service on a Saturday night of that same year. Brother. Bobby recalls the voice of the Lord saying to him,

"Bobby, obey and preach the Gospel." His response; simply, "Yes!"

The following year, in 1962, Brother Bobby received his Missions Workers License, and in the same year he was assigned the Washington Pentecostal Holiness Church. The following year he was licensed by the North Carolina Conference and he married Gloria Anne Hill of Vanceboro, N.C. After about a year both of them left for Emmanuel College, where Bobby earned an Associate of Arts degree. When they returned to North Carolina in 1966 Brother Bobby was ordained by the North Carolina Conference.

Building on this educational foundation, Bro. Bobby obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from East Carolina University, where he graduated with honors and with an Advanced Science and Math Certificate from the University of North Carolina. As an ordained minister he served for 15 years as the Office Manager for Pitt County Memorial Hospital.

Brother Bobby and his wife, Anne, have served the following congregations, Robersonville P. H. Church, Red Springs P. H. Church, Roper P. H. Church, New Bern P. H. Church, Shelmerdine P. H. Church and Kinston First P. H. Church. At the request of the Conference Bishop and Council, Brother has served as a interim pastor for the St. Paul P. H. Church, Tarboro First P. H. Church and Roper P. H. Church. For 14 years Bro. Bobby served on the North Carolina Conference Council, where his influence and wisdom continue to produce fruit.

Rev. Bobby Williams, with his wife Anne at his side, have served God and the North Carolina Conference for 47 distinguished years.

REV. HUBERT & REV. KAREN SAPP

Brother Bert and Sister Karen come to us today as ordained ministers, each in their own right, and as a ministry team who have been engaged in the service of the Kingdom of God since 1985.

Originally from Powhatan Virginia, Brother Bert was saved, sanctified and filled the Holy Spirit the same day, on August 21, 1968. In 1970 he was called to preach at youth camp. For five years he preached and sang all over United States, while during the winter months was mentored in pastoral ministry by his own pastor.

Brother Sapp enrolled in Holmes Bible College in 1975 and graduated in 1978. Sister Karen also attended Holmes Bible College. She was licensed with the Pennsylvania Conference on July 10, 1982, and ordained November 1985, after she and Bert settled into their pastorate in Ohio.

From Holmes Bert went to work in Falcon Children's Home as a house parent. In September 1983 he resigned from the Children Home to return to Greenville, S.C. to attend nursing school and served as interim pastor of Terry Creek P. H. Church. At the same time he worked at Holmes as a teacher's assistant.

After graduating from Edgewood High School, in Ohio, Karen completed a program at Ashtabula Vocation Technical College, and graduated with a Food Services Certificate. It was then that Karen moved to Greenville, S. C. to go to Holmes Bible College, and where she and Bert met.

On August 10, 1985, Karen Leonard and Bert Sapp were married. Having married a licensed minister, Bert loyally followed his wife's calling in 1985 to move to Ohio, so that Karen could take up the responsibilities of the pastoral ministry of the Covenant P.H. Church, in Conneaut, Ohio. Bert was eventually licensed in the Pennsylvania Conference, and began to do evangelistic work there. Bert and Karen were ordained together in November 1985, and Bert was later elected to serve as Church Education Ministries Assistant Director and then Director for the Pennsylvania Conference.

Bert and Karen returned to Virginia to care for Bert's mother in 1989, where Bert co-founded the Upper Room Chapel Church, which grew from 40 to 200 in attendance, and where Karen served as the Church Education Ministries Director. In 1991 they moved back to Falcon to the Children's Home, where Bert became the campus nurse, and Karen took over as Food Services Director.

From 1994 – 1997 they pastored the Shiloh P. H. Church in Godwin, and from 1997 – 1998 the Micro P. H. Church. Their last pastorate was Tyndall Grove P. H. Church, into which they invested seven years of ministry, from 1998 – 2005.

Brother Bert Sapp's self-proclaimed philosophy of pastoral ministry is to follow God faithfully, work steadily, and to love people openly, all the while leading by example.

BRUCE AVERY

Rev. Bruce Avery was born on November 19, 1949. On October 3, 1966, he married Sue Bolling.

In 1968, Bruce and Sue joined the NC Conference and began their ministry together. He pastored 15 churches, including: Middlesex, Bailey, Woodland Avenue, Mt. Olive, Vanceboro, Belfast, Lumberton, Thunder Swamp, Emmanuel, Ebenezer, Trinity, West Wood in Henderson, Black Jack, Greater Mt. Paran, and Mt. Paran.

Brother Bruce served in the ministry for 43 years. Not only did he win numerous people to the Lord, he planted Greater Mount Paran Assembly PH Church, and was also instrumental in bringing both a Hispanic church and an African-American church into the Conference. Even when his health began to fail and he was unable to serve in a church, Brother Bruce never lost sight of the "call". He continued to prepare sermons everyday. Brother Avery was a true servant of the Lord, and on June 17, 2011, he received his eternal reward.

Brother Avery is survived by his wife, Sue; daughters Tammy Sue Jarman and husband Chuck, Renea Avery Dew, Katherine Grace Lucas and husband, Phillip; 6 grandchildren; a brother, John Wayne Avery and wife, Carolyn.

We honor the memory of Brother Bruce Avery and his service.

CHARLES FAULK

Rev. Charles Nelson Faulk was born on August 22, 1939. He was a loving, caring, courageous person. He was an excellent husband, father and grandfather, and always thought of others instead of himself. He always kept a positive attitude about things. Even after losing both of his legs and overcoming cancer, he never complained, never felt sorry for himself. You never heard him say, "Why Lord, why me?" He never got angry with God for his sickness, but was always thanking God for helping him through another day.

Charles was a veteran of the United States Marine Corps. After he retired, he started studying for his minister's license. He had a desire to see people saved, especially his children, which he talked to the about the Lord many times. He loved his children dearly. He received his minister's license in 2007 and started ministering at the local nursing home. The patients loved him and told him they could identify with him because he was in a wheelchair like them.

In January 2008, Charles was in the hospital for four months, and was put on life support four times, but God saw him through this ordeal as well. After that, he was in and out of the hospital and then on dialysis. He lost his strength and was very weak so he wasn't able to get out very much. And yet, still his light shined through his trials and pain. He continued to inspire those who came to see him or call him, and he carried God's ministry on through to the end of his life. He never lost his love for his Savior. Charles received his reward on May 31, 2011.

Charles is survived by his wife of 53 years, Lou; five children: Sherri F. Martin and husband, John; Kenny Faulk and wife, Linda; Ernest Faulk; David Faulk and wife, Shelia; and Tony Faulk; 12 grandchildren, four great-grandchildren; three sisters and two brothers.

MARGARET TYNDALL FLENNIKEN

Ophelia Margaret Tyndall Flenniken was born on January 19, 1920. At the age of six, while picking peas, she gave her heart to the Lord. In 1934, at the age of 14, she married Troy Tyndall. They were married for 50 years until his death in 1984. In August of 1945 she began attending Tyndall Grove PH and conducted the first VBS held at the church. In July of 1947, she received her local Minister's license from the North Carolina Conference. From 1964-1979 she served as a nurse's aid at Sampson Memorial Hospital, gaining the love and respect of all her co-workers and patients alike.

On April 7, 1986, Mrs. Margaret married Josiah Flenniken. He passed away in April of 1993.

Mrs. Margaret was a great prayer warrior for the church, her family and her community. Her heart was broken for lost souls, broken families and seemingly ruined lives. She always prayed for the healing of body and soul of all her family, friends and the stranger she would just meet.

Mrs. Margaret spent her life raising her large family and ministering to those around her. Her life was her testimony of her love for her Lord and Savior. Even as she lay in her bed, barely conscious at times, she told everyone who came to see her to "live for the Lord and to keep serving Him." On June 22, 2011, she finally met her Lord and Savior face to face.

She raised 11 children, nine of whom are still with us. She is the grandmother of 53 children, great grandmother of 121 children, and great-great-grandmother of 36 children. What a legacy, and what a beautiful testimony of God's amazing love!

GLADYS GURGANUS

Mrs. Gladys Irene Jones Gurganus, wife of the late Rev. Cullen P. Gurganus, was born on September 17, 1922. At the age of 88, she passed peacefully from this life into her eternal home on May 27, 2011.

Rev. and Mrs. Gurganus were married on September 16, 1939. They were together for 65 years.

The Gurganus' were members of the Eastern Virginia, Southern California, and North Carolina Conferences of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church. Mrs. Gladys was a faithful pastor's wife, serving beside her husband at Broadmoor Church and South Mills in Virginia, National City, Palmdale and Pomona Churches in California, and Scotland Neck, Ahoskie, Red Springs, Beaufort and Goldsboro (Liberty) in North Carolina.

Sister Gladys was a faithful and loving wife. When Brother Gurganus' health began to decline, she took care of him and waited on him at home. When he was moved to the nursing home in Pembroke, she arrived early in the morning and stayed with him until sundown...every single day.

Sister Gladys was a faithful and loving servant. She often filled in for her husband when he wasn't able to be in the pulpit in the latter part of his ministry. She was loved by the many congregations that they served.

After Rev. Gurganus' retirement, they began attending The Life Center in St. Pauls and became a great encouragement to the pastor and that growing congregation.

Sister Gladys was a faith and loving mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She raised two children, who survive her: Gay Gurganus Colston, and Cullen P. Gurganus II. Her legacy and memory lives on through them and extends to her remaining, surviving family members, including four grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren.

Faithful and loving. This was her life and her legacy.

TERRY LEWIS

Terry Lee Lewis was born on October 5, 1953. He was the third of three children born to Rev. W. Harold and Frances Lewis. Terry was sickly growing up, but a blanket of prayer was always upon him and God brought him through many times.

Terry grew up following in the steps of his parents. In his teenage years, like most young people, he strayed, but not that far. Terry, thinking he could get away from his roots, left home to do his own thing. He left for Virginia. But you cannot hide from God nor get away from the prayers of a mama and daddy. In the Trinity PH Church in Chesapeake, VA, Terry was saved during a revival conducted by Rev. Raleigh Horton. Later sanctified and baptized with the Holy Ghost, he was called to preach.

Terry met his wife through his brother, Phillip. The first time he saw Marie was at the Lowland PH Church, and he told him that she was the prettiest girl he had ever seen. Not long after that, they were married.

Terry was an ordained minister in the North Carolina Conference for 25 years. He served as pastor of the Oriental PH Church for five years, and for 20 years at the Lowland PH Church.

A significant part of Terry's ministry was music. He travelled and sang with his brother, Phillip, and sister, Sharon, in a number of churches and camp meetings through the years. He also led the singing for the Piney Grove Camp Meeting for a number of years.

Terry passed from this life to his eternal reward on December 23, 2010, at the age of 57. He is survived by his wife, Marie; one son, Jonathan; one daughter, Denise and husband Rodrigo, one brother, Rev. Phillip Lewis and wife, Tammy; a sister, Sharon Rice and husband James; and two grandchildren.

He joined the Western NC Conference, but later moved to eastern NC and joined the NC Conference, where he was licensed and ordained in 1960. He pastored several churches in the NC Conference, including Clayton, Fuquay-Varina, Holly Hill and Kenly. After a 10-year association with the Mid-Atlantic Conference, John returned to the NC Conference and pastored Graham Memorial, Tabernacle, Westmoreland, Crystal Coast, and Harvest Temple. After retiring, he and Mrs. Della attended the Liberty PH Church.

During his years of ministry, numerous building projects were realized at his various pastorates. But more importantly, many came to salvation and many others renewed their relationship with Jesus Christ. Rev. Slye was a man who followed after Christ and preached by example.

Brother Slye became a citizen of Heaven on January 16, 2011, at the age of 89.

Rev. Slye is survived by his wife of 54 years, Della; a son, Edward; a daughter, Patricia Webster; 11 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren.

LOUISE SMITH

On February 19, 2011, at the age of 88, beloved Miss Louise Smith departed this home for her Eternal home in Heaven.

Born October 31, 1922, Martha Louise was born to William Harvey and Minnie Elizabeth Barrington Smith. Louise was the oldest of 10 children (seven girls and three sons).

Louise attended Bear Creek School, graduated from Chocowinity High School in 1940 and accepted Jesus into her heart as Lord and Savior. During the spring of her senior year, Louise knew she was called to be a missionary. To prepare for this missionary work, she attended Holmes Bible College and Furman University where she graduated in 1947. After getting her degree, she went before the Pentecostal Holiness Mission Board to make preparations to go to the mission field. While waiting for her assignment, Louise taught third grade at Chocowinity School. There she taught for five years before going to serve in India on October 31, 1952 (her birthday).

After serving 25 years in India, Miss Louise returned home in September of 1977 due to the illness of her mother. After her mother's death, Miss Louise went to Durbin, South Africa. She worked in Indian churches for five years. She retired in early spring of 1992. Since retiring, Louise made her home in the community of Chocowinity.

Miss Louise was an active member of Hodges Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church, and served as the local Missions Director for a number of years. Her life in the mission field of India and South Africa as well as her "work" at Hodges Chapel was dedicated to spreading God's work to the lost.

Miss Louise is survived by four sisters, Elizabeth S. Clark, Margie S. Lanning, Lucille S. McDonald, and Ruby Meeks; two brothers, William E. Smith and James Thurman Smith; and several nieces and nephews.

HAROLD TURPIN

Rev. Harold Ray Turpin, 75, went home to be with his Lord and Savior on July 3, 2011.

Brother Turpin was born on February 3, 1936 to Rev. Leonard Edward and Mrs. Henrietta Primrose Turpin. On February 14, 1959, he married Mavis Kennedy.

Brother Turpin enjoyed making people laugh. He was a successful businessman, an avid golfer, and loved to fish and hunt. Most of all, he was a successful pastor. Wherever he went, the church experienced growth. After joining the NC Conference in 1959, the ministry of Harold and Mavis Turpin took them to six churches, including Verona, Whitley, Westmoreland, Friendship in Wilson, Brentwood in Tarboro, and Selma. During most of his pastorates, he oversaw various building projects and church relocations.

Rev. Turpin is survived by his wife of 52 years, Mavis; a daughter, Joy Turpin; a son Harold Turpin; two nephews, Clifton Turpin, Jr. & wife, Jo, and Steven Turpin; a great niece, Brittany Turpin; and a great-nephew, Clifton Turpin, III.

BESSIE HALE REESE

Mrs. Bessie Hale Reece was born in Martin County on August 22, 1919. She was the wife of the late Andrew W. Hale. After Mr. Hale's death in 1967, she married the late Rev. W.T. Reece, ordained minister in the N.C. Conference. Bessie went home to be with the Lord at 91 years of age on December 19, 2010. Many family members had gone before her and awaited her arrival in that blessed home of the redeemed.

Bessie was a loving woman who served her family and church faithfully. She was saved in the Pentecostal Holiness Church at the age of 16. As a young adult, she and her first husband, Andrew, helped start the Darlington PH Church (now Trinity PH Church in Roanoke Rapids) where she remained a faithful member for 75 years until the time of her death.

She is survived by two sons, Robert Earl Hale and George Collin Hale; one daughter, Nan Hale Carpenter; nine grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. One son was deceased, James W. Hale.

CLARA WILLIAMS

Mrs. Clara Peele Williams, was born on April 1, 1922. Mrs. Williams was a native of Martin County. She married Samuel J. Williams in June 1943. Mrs. Clara graduated from Holmes Theological Seminary in Greenville, South Carolina, received a BS degree from Atlantic Christian College and a Master of Arts from East Carolina University. She taught at Southwood Elementary School in Kinston, and then worked as a guidance counselor at Kinston High School.

In 1964 the family moved to Dunn, where she worked as a counselor at Erwin High School.

Later while living in Tulsa, Oklahoma, she lacked only one course and dissertation finishing her doctorate at the University of Tulsa. While in Tulsa, she worked with the Tulsa Public schools as a school psychologist, and later taught Educational Psychology at Oral Roberts University. She also supervised the first student teachers at ORU. In 1969 she returned to North Carolina, working as a school supervisor in the Harnett County school system. In 1973 she moved to Springfield, Missouri, where she served as principal of Stafford Elementary School.

Sister Clara and her husband returned to Greenville in 1979, where she became active in conducting seminars relating to the family and prayer. She began the Greenville Women's Aglow and served as its first president. She was a licensed minister of the NC Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. Additionally, Brother and Sister Williams were instrumental in two church plants in the NC Conference, both at Hobgood PH and Ayden PH. Even though she had many interests, she considered being a wife and mother, and working alongside her husband in ministry, her most important. She was a member of St. Paul Pentecostal Holiness Church.

On February 5, 2011, at the age of 88, Sister Clara went home to be with her Lord.

Mrs. Williams was preceded in death by her husband, Rev. Samuel J. Williams, in 2003.

Surviving are her son, Roland Bryan Williams and wife, Joanne; daughter, Deborah Williams Riley; two grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

NICOLAS ELIAS YAC VASQUEZ

In July of 2011, at the age of 29, Pastor Nicolas Elias Yac Vasquez went to dwell with the Lord Jesus Christ in glory.

Brother Nicolas was born on June 23, 1982 in the city of Almolonga Quetzaltenando, Guatemala. He married Ramona Machic Sanchez on August 28, 2001. At the age of 15, he received Jesus as his Savior. Brother Nicolas furthered his studies at a school in Guatemala and at the age of 16, he graduated with a certification as a commentator. He immediately began working as a commentator in a local Christian radio station. He served as the assistant Pastor of the same Church where he received the Lord and was also a member of The Power of the Holy Spirit PH Church in Almolonga, where he served as deacon and director of worship.

In 2002, Brother Nicolas came to the United States to work and serve the Lord in any and every capacity. He became a member of the Restoration and Power Hispanic PH Church in Mount Olive, NC, and later became the assistant pastor until September of 2009, when he was appointed as the Senior Pastor.

Brother Nicolas' devout life is a glowing example of someone that loved God with all his heart and served his Lord and Savior with faithfulness and dedication.

Brother Nicolas is survived by his wife Ramona Machic Sanchez and their children: nine-year-old Lucia Estefania Yac Machic and nine-month old Elvin Samuel Yak Machic.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES MINUTES OF 2011 CONVENTION

"...for ye are one in Christ Jesus." (Galatians 3:28b)

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixty-Seventh Annual Convention on Saturday June 4, 2011, at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "Connecting Cultures".

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the Tabernacle foyer with Teresa Woodard as Registrar, assisted by the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors.

Local Women's Ministries groups and other Conference Ministries had "Show and Sell" displays in the Archives room adjacent to the auditorium.

Connecting Cultures in Music, Praise and Worship...

Musical prelude began at 8:30 a.m. by NCWM Assistant Director, Terry Boyette.

Rev. Sharon Wooten, WM Field Director for Africa, and her daughters, Jessica and Janene, opened the Convention by leading us in singing, "The Revelation Song".

Welcome and Invocation was given by Rev. Jon Oliver, NC Conference Discipleship Ministries Director. He spoke of "Who He is". Rev. Oliver then introduced NCWM Director, Janice Marshburn.

Director Marshburn greeted members of the Convention and she introduced Kathya Gonzalez, NCWM Bilingual Advisor and Rhonda Smith, Deaf Interpreter, from Shiloh PH Church in Wilson. Kathya translated her greeting in Spanish and Rhonda used sign language in an effort to demonstrate "Connecting different Cultures".

Connecting Cultures Through Ministry…

Mr. Joey Leggett, Falcon Children's Home Director, spoke about the importance of Women's Ministries role to the Children's Home. He stated that one fourth of their budget comes from Women's Ministries and he is thankful to have us as part of his team. He also shared his excitement that this year they will begin a Christian School.

Darnell Nelms, NCWM Board Member, whose portfolio is Education, shared a video from the 2010 Feast of Ingathering presentations to our church schools. Linda Thomas, Chairperson of the Emmanuel College Board of Trustees, spoke on behalf of Emmanuel and expressed heartfelt appreciation for the contributions from North Carolina Women's Ministries. She also stated that Emmanuel has received their first million dollar gift. Mrs. Nelms then gave Bishop James Leggett, President of Holmes Bible College, (who spoke in behalf of Bishop Jimmy Whitfield) an opportunity to address the women. He expressed his appreciation for the gifts received from NCWM through the Feast of Ingathering offerings to support the ministries of the school. He also shared his excitement for land that has been donated to Holmes, which is valued at $250,000 to $400,000. Holmes Bible College is on the front line placing missionaries and pastors all over the world.

Janice Marshburn and Darnell Nelms then awarded Scholarships to the following Emmanuel students: Lindsay Kay Taylor, William Justin Morris, Jonathan Mills, Michael Callicutt, Roslin Balla, Jenna Aycock and Jessica Wooten. Both Jenna Aycock and Jessica Wooten expressed their appreciation to the women of the Conference for helping them fulfill their dreams to attend Emmanuel College.

Terry Boyette, NCWM Assistant Director, whose portfolio is Missions, gave a moving report for the Nakuru Orphanage in Africa (Christian Ministries to the Destitute). There are 180 children who need assistance. Members of the convention were given an opportunity to give to this ministry outreach. The offering received was in excess of $1,000.00. Our hearts are filled with joy that we were able to contribute these funds to change lives around the world.

Teresa Woodard, NCWM Secretary/Treasurer, reported on Sharing Sisters and Intercession. She asked that we forsake not the assembling of ourselves together. She also reminded us that when someone asked for prayer to stop and pray right at that moment because there is no distance in prayer.

NCWM Director Janice Marshburn chose not to read her entire written report but shared with the group her appreciation for their confidence in electing her to serve as the North Carolina Women's Ministries Director.

One of the highlights of the journey has been the incorporation of the Women's Ministries under the Discipleship Ministries Department. Working under the leadership of Director JON OLIVER has been an absolute privilege. Thank you, Director Oliver, for taking me under your wing and treating me like "family". This placement has also resulted in a new relationship with Men's Ministries. Director RONNIE BASDEN and his team assisted us in sponsoring the first NCWM Golf Tournament. Thank you guys! Meeting and working together on this event has created a strong bond. Our words are inadequate, but our gratitude is genuine.

In addition to multiple hours spent preparing quarterly mailings, I have been busy on the phone, e-mail and Facebook in order to stay connected with local groups. I have traveled in excess of 7,700 miles across the North Carolina Conference as you have allowed me the privilege to be a part of your WM Day observances, Sharing Sister programs, and your local meetings. I have held workshops and training sessions, planned and executed our Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training, and participated in district rallies. I represented the NCWM at each fall and winter Leadership Summit, Discipleship Ministries Board meetings, New Minister's Day, and the Bishop's Strategic Advisory Council meetings. It was also my privilege to attend the General Director's Council Meeting in New York. An added benefit of that training was the opportunity to participate in the Metro Ministries Sunday School outreach activities. It has been an action packed year!

I have been very busy, but so have you! Thank you for helping to equip our young men and women for Christian life and ministry by supporting our church schools. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $58,686.83. Our goal was $70,000. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern Christian University, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $12,307.30 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $8,380.67.

Falcon Children's Home was the recipient of $85,488.62 in cash and $23,622.49 in commodities from the North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $1,884.20 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM) which has been renamed The Royal Home Ministries.

Throughout the year the NCWM board members, TERRY BOYETTE, TERESA WOODARD, and DARNELL NELMS, have stayed connected with me through prayer, multiple meetings, e-mails, and phone calls. I say a personal "thank you" to each of you as you have loved, supported, and endured all my "firsts" this past year. To SANDRA BRITT who served as Secretary/Treasurer from June 2010 through February 2011, let me express my appreciation for all your service to this board. We will love you forever!

We are excited to announce two recent additions to the NCWM leadership team. ELAINE STALLS has been appointed to serve as a NCWM board member. In an effort to connect with our Hispanic women, KATHYA GONZALEZ has been appointed as the NCWM Bilingual Advisor. We welcome them both and look forward to serving together.

In an effort to connect generations, CORTNEE MOBLEY was appointed as our 2011 Next Generation Leadership representative. Cortnee will serve alongside the NCWM Board for a period of one year. This role will provide the opportunity of mentoring for her, as well as input from the younger generation for us. Her enthusiasm is contagious.

In an effort to connect with our widows, the "Forever Loved Ministry" has been implemented. Former NCWM Director PATSY DEESE initiated this ministry. MAVIS BLAND, Morehead City District Director, is assisting Patsy with this ministry.

Our Girls' Ministries leadership team connects with our younger girls throughout the North Carolina Conference. Under the direction of LYDIA MILLS and the leadership team, CRYSTAL GRANT, DEBRA COLLINS and WANDA OATES, these women operate in a spirit of excellence. They continue to be a strong and vital arm of Women's Ministries. We are blessed to have them. Thanks to each of them for every sacrifice and every moment of service. Your price is above rubies!

Under the cheerful leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD the HAPPY HEARTS connect our more mature women. We appreciate Janice Lucas, Juanita Russell, Mary Belle Johnson, and Jean Gore assisting Blanche with planning and promoting the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. Their primary ministry outreach is providing Christmas Stockings to Metro Ministries in New York. Thank you for a job well done!

Valuable women still offering valuable service are those of THE PAST PRESIDENT'S/DIRECTOR'S CLUB chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT. Ms. Dollie, along with JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON, LINDA M. THOMAS, and PATSY DEESE stay connected to the Throne as they support the Women's Ministries through wisdom and prayer. On February 5, 2011, former President Clara Williams fulfilled her calling and was ushered into heaven by holy angels. Today we honor her memory for her service as NCWM President during the years of 1950-1951.

NCWM DISTRICT DIRECTORS serve as a liaison within their districts by promoting WM on the home front. Their contributions are invaluable as they organize rallies, provide reminders to the churches in their district, offer support, and serve as registrars and helpers at Conference activities. A very special thanks to DEANNA BARNEY, PATSY PAYNE, LARUE TART, BRENDA PHILLIPS, PEGGY GAWINSKI, MAVIS BLAND, ROSE ALLIGOOD, CAROL DAVIS, BETTY WATSON, ELAINE STALLS, JACKIE THOMPSON, and BARBARA MYNES.

NCWM HISTORIAN MEDIA LEE keeps us connected to the past and present serving as our official photographer and archives expert. You can easily spot her in the crowd catching those Kodak moments at each activity. Thank you for capturing all those special memories.

Thank you BISHOP JIMMY WHITFIELD for your willingness to stay connected no matter the hour of the day or night. His leadership abilities are reflected in the RDC STAFF as they have assisted me in more ways than I can say.

To our faithful PRAYER TEAM, we are so thankful that you continue to pray for us. We have felt your prayers more than you know. Thanks to each of you for continuing to pray for the NCWM Board and the work of Women's Ministries at home and around the world. There is power in prayer!

To my home church, Good News Ministries, Pastor Phillip Bland, and his wife, Holly, my words are truly insufficient. Your prayers and support are greatly appreciated. You have released me to be gone when necessary but welcomed me with opened arms when I returned.

My Gary assists me in connecting with the entire Conference in so many ways. He says his job is to "drive Mrs. Janice," but he does so much more. He stuffs mail-outs, runs to the post office, then he's off to Wal-Mart and anywhere else I need him to go. When I'm overwhelmed, he assures me it will all work out. My workshops and sermons are saturated with his prayers. He is truly an "enabler." I love and appreciate him.

To each of you, I say thank you for all you do on the local level. You are the instruments that God is using to meet the needs in your homes, churches and communities. Thank you for your continued support of the many facets of Women's Ministries. I challenge you to prayerfully seek for ways to make your local WM unique. I pray that your meetings will not be traditional but exceptional to the point that the ladies will leave saying, "I just can't wait until the next one." My prayer is that your women will connect in such a way that lives will be changed and discipleship will happen.

In the absence of Mavis Bland, Coordinator for "Forever Loved Ministries", Patsy Deese shared that this group is moving forward to assist local WM leadership to meet the needs of widows in our local churches. She also shared a few of the many opportunities we have to minister to this growing number of women.

Lydia Mills, Girls' Ministries Director, spoke about all of the opportunities provided through Girls' Ministries. She mentioned that Power Chicks are still accepting applications and this National Event is held every four years and is a great opportunity for our girls to grow as stronger Christians. Crystal Grant, Secretary/Treasurer, reported that only twenty-three churches in the North Carolina Conference contribute to Girls' Ministries. She expressed her desire for the word to get out that this organization is well worth the effort.

Happy Hearts Director, Blanche Pollard, expressed her appreciation to the women for all their love and support. Happy Hearts is alive and well. She also reminded everyone that the Christmas Stockings will be sent to Metro Ministries in New York and encouraged their participation.

Gifts of appreciation were presented to the NCWM Leadership by Director Marshburn for their hard work and dedication to Women's Ministries.

Cortnee Mobley, 2011 Next Generation Leader, read a poem titled "I'm Free" before giving the Memoirs Report:

Connecting Cultures Through Music…

Maria Stalls sang the beautiful song, "Alabaster Box" and Cortnee Mobley pantomimed the song through sign language. Maria Stalls and Vasti Rodriquez sang, "Glorify the Lord" both in Spanish and English. It was a beautiful time of reflection.

Connecting Cultures Through Message…

NCWM board member, Elaine Stalls, introduced Rev. Sandra Kirkman who gave the message of the hour.

Rev. Kirkman read Galatians 3:28 and Revelation 12:11 and shared that we are all connected by the blood of Jesus. She stated "without the shedding of the blood, there is no forgiveness of sins". We are all blood relatives. She also stated that the blood pronounces victory over Satan and we can overcome him by the blood. She also shared with us that because of Jesus Christ, He pumps a new blood through our veins. Because of who we are in Christ, we can tell Satan to go back to hell!! God produces a new boldness in us and we can be meek but not weak and by the word of our testimony, we can help each other. What a powerful message she gave us and reminded us that holiness is on the inside. The main points were that the blood pronounces victory over Satan, it produces boldness, it purges our passion for the world and disconnects our love for the world.

At the end of her sermon a powerful prayer service followed and the ladies were dismissed at 12:00 p.m.

Respectfully Submitted,
Teresa Woodard
NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

The beautiful floral arrangement was provided by the Women's Ministries of the St. John P. H. Church in Newton Grove in memory of Mrs. Dora Mae Lee. Mrs. Lee served the Lord with joy for almost eighty years.

The mission of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church is to multiply believers and churches, discipling them in worship, fellowship and evangelism as we obey the Great Commission in cooperation with the whole body of Christ.
